

The Hero's Journey and The Power of Choice

Language Arts and Life Skills through Storytelling and Dialog

Thought provoking stories from world folklore and mythology serve as a springboard for discussion about the challenges and choices that teenagers face.

Life Skills	Language Arts
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Discovering and harnessing personal power	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Recognizing narrative patterns, genres, motifs and conventions
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Finding and learning from mentors	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Strengthening listening and oral presentation skills
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Identifying the qualities of true friendship	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Developing critical thinking skills to evaluate information and solve problems
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Taking positive risks	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Communicating in a coherent and persuasive manner
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Overcoming predictable and unexpected obstacles	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Using literature to understand self, others and diverse cultures
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Resolving conflicts peacefully and productively	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Developing an interest in reading and researching for pleasure